

Christmas in Uganda

Christmas is a very important time for families and friends in Uganda. It is an important time in many other countries too.

In Uganda, December 25th and 26th are public holidays. Many people in Uganda travel to their hometowns to celebrate Christmas. They usually travel by car or bus. Many people buy new clothes that they wear on Christmas day. They work hard and save money to make Christmas a wonderful time.

What do people do on Christmas day? Many people go to church on Christmas day because many people in Uganda are Christians. Mothers are very busy on Christmas day. They stay at home and cook for the family. They wake up very early in the morning to start cooking.

On Christmas day, many family members come to eat lunch together. Everyone is very happy and excited. There is a lot of delicious food to eat on Christmas day. People are very happy and enjoy the delicious food. They enjoy talking to family members. People listen to Christmas music on CD or local radio. It creates a very nice mood. Young children sometimes receive money gifts from their relatives (grandparents, aunts, uncles and family friends).

Some people go to nice restaurants to eat, but it is very expensive. Others go to the lakeshores or amusement places. It is a nice day to take family photos. Merry Christmas!
